

Opening of the Selection Process for ENA and IRA Long-Term International Courses: September 24th, 2018

A high ranking civil servant, you wish to improve, develop new skills directly linked to your missions, exchange viewpoints and best practices with colleagues from throughout the world?

Each year, ENA selects around 80 candidates for its long-term international courses and those of the Instituts Régionaux d'Administration (IRA).

You can be one of them if you meet the required conditions.

3 long-term courses are open to foreign public agents and civil servants :

Long International Course (CIL)

Lasting 14 months, open to junior civil servants or public agents. The CIL may be open to future civil servants after dispensation.

■ This course leading to ENA International Certificate in Public Administration can be completed with one of the three high-level professional Masters programmes : a Masters programme in General Public Administration, a Masters programme in Public Institution Communication and a Masters programme in Public Action in Europe organised by ENA in partnership with prestigious French universities: University Paris IV CELSA ; University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, and the University of Strasbourg.

NB : French nationality debar candidates from long international course.

International Advanced Training Course (CIP)

Lasting 8 months, open to senior civil servants.

■ This course leading to ENA International Certificate in Public Administration can be completed with a Masters programme in one of two special areas: "Public Administration and international affairs" or "Public Specialised Administration" organised in partnership with University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, and the University of Strasbourg.

IRA International Course (CiIRA)

Lasting 8 months, open to junior and senior civil servants.

■ IRA course also provides foreign civil servants with the opportunity to prepare, in addition to their IRA diploma, a Masters programme.

All applicants must hold a degree at "Master 1" level or, in exceptional cases, have completed an equivalent course. They must also have some professional background to share experience with French and foreign colleagues and hold a position of responsibility. They should speak and write fluent French, be fluent in English and must pass the school's entrance examinations.

The selection process is the same for ENA and IRA courses.
